Visa applications/case progression

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) advised that prior to ministerial intervention, Mr X was part of a cohort who had not had their protection claims assessed as they arrived in Australia after 13 August 2012 and were subject to the bar under s 46A.
12 March 2014	DIBP notified Mr X of the unintentional release of personal information ² and advised that the privacy breach would be taken into account when considering his protection claims.
25 September 2015	Mr X's case was referred on a ministerial submission for consideration to lift the bar under s 46A.

¹ A maritime arrival to Australia's mainland who is seeking protection. Maritime arrivals who arrived as 'direct entry persons' after 13 August 2012 and before 20 May 2013 are not subject to the s 46A bar.

² In a media release dated 19 February 2014 the former Minister advised that an immigration detention statistics report was released on DIBP's website on 11 February 2014 which inadvertently disclosed detainees' personal information. The documents were removed from the website as soon as DIBP became aware of the breach from the media. The Minister acknowledged this was a serious breach of privacy by DIBP.

29 September 2015	The Minister lifted the bar under s 46A to allow Mr X to lodge a temporary visa application. DIBP advised that it is yet to invite Mr X to lodge an application for a temporary visa.

Criminal matters

5 September 2014	DIBP advised that Mr X was involved in an altercation with detainees of a different ethnicity at Christmas Island IDC. On 27 November 2014, Mr X was charged by the Australian Federal Police for his involvement in the incident.
10 December 2014	Mr X attended a hearing at the Christmas Island Magistrates Court and on 13 October 2015 the matter was scheduled for trial at the Perth Magistrates Court.

Health and welfare

April 2013	International Health and Medical Services (IHMS) advised that Mr X was referred for diagnostic testing after he presented with recurring back and neck pain. In May 2014 an x-ray identified abnormalities and in January 2015 he was referred to a neurosurgeon for assessment. His condition is monitored by a general practitioner and pain relief medication is prescribed as required.
8 January 2015	Disclosed a history of torture and trauma but declined specialist counselling. He was advised to self-refer to the mental health team as required.
15 February 2015	During a review with a neurosurgeon, Mr X was provided with a treatment plan.
28 August 2015	Mr X attended a review with the neurosurgeon and reported that he continues to experience pain. It was recommended that he continue his treatment plan and if his pain persists, further investigations would be considered.

Other matters

28 July 2015	The Ombudsman's office requested information from DIBP about the circumstances of the arrival of a number of people from SIEV 662 Lambeth who were detained on the Australian mainland, apparently as 'direct entry persons', but have been subject to the bar under s 46A. The Ombudsman's office also identified that there may be more people who arrived in similar circumstances to those of SIEV Lambeth .
30 July 2015 – 25 August 2015	DIBP advised on four occasions that it expected to provide clarification as soon as information had been sourced from other areas within DIBP.

1 September 2015	The Ombudsman's office opened an investigation into the arrival and detention circumstances of people who arrived in Australian waters on 17 April 2013 aboard SIEV Lambeth. The Ombudsman's office also identified that there may be more arrivals, including Mr X who arrived on SIEV Weinem, who arrived in similar circumstances to those of SIEV Lambeth. A response from DIBP was requested by 30 September 2015 but not received.
2 October 2015 – 22 October 2015	DIBP advised on three occasions that its response was awaiting clearance and would be delayed.
13 November 2015	The Ombudsman's office requested further information under its own motion powers into the arrival and detention circumstances of people who arrived in Australian waters between 13 August 2012 and 20 May 2013 who appeared to have been detained on the Australian mainland as 'direct entry persons' but remained subject to the s 46A bar.
26 November 2015	The matter was raised at a meeting with senior DIBP staff and it was requested that a response to the investigation into the people who arrived on SIEV Lambeth be provided to the Ombudsman's office by 10 December 2015.
16 December 2015	DIBP provided a response to the Ombudsman's request for information.
23 December 2015	The Ombudsman notified the Minister for Immigration and Border Protection of his intention to conduct an investigation under his own motion powers into DIBP's administration of the detention of people who arrived in Australian waters on SIEV Lambeth. The Ombudsman further advised the Minister that he would ask DIBP to look further at other boats where the arrivals were detained in Darwin around the same period of time.
25 February 2016	DIBP advised that an internal investigation had commenced to examine the issues raised by the Ombudsman's own motion investigation and that it will keep the Ombudsman advised as this progresses.

Ombudsman assessment/recommendation

Mr X was detained on 14 April 2013 after arriving in Australia aboard SIEV Weinem, and has been held in restricted detention for over two and a half years with no processing of his protection claims.

The Ombudsman notes that DIBP considered that Mr X was subject to the bar under s 46A for more than two years until the Minister lifted the bar on 29 September 2015 to allow Mr X to apply for a temporary visa.

On the basis of the information available to the Ombudsman at the time of this report, it would appear that Mr X may not have been subject to the s 46A bar due to his arrival on the Australian mainland as a 'direct entry person' on 14 April 2013.

The Ombudsman notes that DIBP has commenced an internal investigation into the issues raised by the Ombudsman's own motion investigation and that it will keep the Ombudsman advised as this progresses. The Ombudsman recommends that priority is given to resolving the circumstances of Mr X's method of arrival, the provision of the Migration Act 1958 under which he was detained, and whether he should have been subject to the s 46A bar.
