Ombudsman assessment/recommendation

Mr X was detained on 13 November 2012 after arriving in Australia aboard SIEV Cadillac, and has been held in restricted detention for over three years with no processing of his protection claims.

The Ombudsman notes that DIBP considered that Mr X was subject to the bar under s 46A for more than two and a half years until the Minister lifted the bar on 13 August 2015 to allow Mr X to apply for a temporary visa. On 28 August 2015 DIBP invited Mr X to lodge a temporary visa application.

On the basis of the information available to the Ombudsman at the time of this report, it would appear that Mr X may not have been subject to the s 46A bar due to his arrival on the Australian mainland as a 'direct entry person' on 13 November 2012.

The Ombudsman notes that DIBP has commenced an internal investigation into the issues raised by the Ombudsman's own motion investigation and that it will keep the Ombudsman advised as this progresses. The Ombudsman recommends that priority is given to resolving the circumstances of Mr X's method of arrival, the provision of the Migration Act 1958 under which he was detained, and whether he should have been subject to the s 46A bar.
