Recent visa applications/case progression

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) advised that Mr X's case is affected by the judgment handed down on 2 September 2015 by the Full Federal Court (FFC), which found that the International Treaties Obligations Assessment (ITOA) process undertaken by DIBP was procedurally unfair.

The Minister appealed the FFC decision and on 27 July 2016 the High Court found that the ITOA process was not procedurally unfair.

Health and welfare

Mr X was provided with treatment for a back injury and monitored for hepatitis B.

Case status

Mr X has been found not to be owed protection under the Refugee Convention and the complementary protection criterion. He is awaiting the outcome of judicial review.

Mr X was granted a Bridging visa on 27 May 2016 and released from immigration detention.
