|-------------|--|
| 9 June 2013 | Ms X and her two children were detained under s 189(3) of the Migration Act 1958 after arriving in Australia aboard Suspected Illegal Entry Vessel 739 Yateley . |
| 2 July 2015 | Granted Bridging visas and released from community detention. |

Visa applications/case progression

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) advised that prior to being released from detention, Ms X and her children were part of a cohort who had not had their protection claims assessed as they arrived in Australia after 13 August 2012 and the Minister had not lifted the bar under s 46A.

Health and welfare

The family was provided with treatment for a range of physical health issues.

Ombudsman assessment/recommendation

Ms X and her children were granted Bridging visas on 2 July 2015 and released from immigration detention.

The Ombudsman notes that Ms X and her children were held in detention for over two years before being granted Bridging visas. The Ombudsman further notes that, at the time of DIBP's review, processing of their claims for protection had not commenced.

The Ombudsman recommends that the Minister lift the bar under s 46A and processing of the family's protection claims commence as soon as possible.
