Recent visa applications/case progression

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) advised that prior to being released from detention, Mr X and his family were part of a cohort who had not had their protection claims assessed as they arrived in Australia after 13 August 2012 and the Minister had not lifted the bar under s 46A of the Migration Act 1958.

Health and welfare

The family was provided with treatment and counselling for a range of physical and mental health issues including depression, anxiety, post-traumatic stress disorder and frontal lobe syndrome.

13 May 2014	Ms X gave birth to her daughter.

Ombudsman assessment/recommendation

Mr X and his family were granted Bridging visas on 2 October 2015 and released from immigration detention.

The Ombudsman notes that Mr X and his family were held in detention for over two and a half years before being granted Bridging visas. The Ombudsman further notes that, at the time of DIBP's review, processing of their claims for protection had not commenced.

The Ombudsman recommends that the Minister lift the bar under s 46A and processing of the family's protection claims commence as soon as possible.
