

REPORT (ABRIDGED) BY THE COMMONWEALTH AND IMMIGRATION OMBUDSMAN FOR TABLING IN PARLIAMENT

Under s 486O of the Migration Act 1958

This is the second s 486O report on Ms X and her children who remained in immigration detention for more than 30 months (two and a half years).

The first report 1001979 was tabled in Parliament on 12 August 2015. This report updates the material in that report and should be read in conjunction with the previous report.

Name	Ms X (and children)
Citizenship	Country A
Year of birth	1974
Ombudsman ID	1003349
Date of DIBP's report	11 May 2015

Detention history

3 November 2012	Ms X and her four children were detained under s 189(3) of the Migration Act 1958 after arriving in Australia aboard Suspected Illegal Entry Vessel 515 Toyota .
4 June 2015	Granted Bridging visas and released from community detention.

Recent visa applications/case progression

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) advised that prior to being released from detention, Ms X and her children were part of a cohort who had not had their protection claims assessed as they arrived in Australia after 13 August 2012 and the Minister had not lifted the bar under s 46A.

Health and welfare

The family was provided with treatment and counselling for a range of physical and mental health issues including depression and anxiety.

Ombudsman assessment/recommendation

Ms X and her children were granted Bridging visas on 4 June 2015 and released from immigration detention.

The Ombudsman notes that Ms X and her children were held in detention for over two and a half years before being granted Bridging visas. The Ombudsman further notes that, at the time of DIBP's review, processing of the family's claims for protection had not commenced.

The Ombudsman recommends that the Minister lift the bar under s 46A and processing of the family's protection claims commence as soon as possible.
