Recent visa applications/case progression

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) advised that Ms X's case is affected by the judgment handed down on 2 September 2015 by the Full Federal Court (FFC), which found that the International Treaties Obligation Assessment (ITOA) process undertaken by DIBP was procedurally unfair.

The Minister appealed the FFC decision and on 27 July 2016 the High Court found that the ITOA process was not procedurally unfair.

Health and welfare

Ms X was provided with treatment for a range of physical health issues including migraines and neck and knee pain. She was also provided with treatment and counselling for an adjustment disorder.

Case status

Ms X has been found not to be owed protection under the Refugee Convention and the complementary protection criterion.

Ms X was granted a Bridging visa on 26 April 2016 and released from immigration detention.
