

ASSESSMENT BY THE COMMONWEALTH OMBUDSMAN FOR TABLING IN PARLIAMENT

Under s 486O of the Migration Act 1958

This is the second s 486O assessment on Mr X who remained in immigration detention for more than 42 months (three and a half years).

The first assessment 1002230-O was tabled in Parliament on 20 October 2016. This assessment provides an update and should be read in conjunction with the previous assessment.

Name	Mr X
Citizenship	Country A
Year of birth	1985
Ombudsman ID	1002230-O1
Date of DIBP's reviews	16 November 2016 and 17 May 2017
Total days in detention	1,276 (at date of DIBP's latest review)

Recent detention history

6 June 2017	Granted a Protection visa and released from an immigration detention facility.
-------------	--

Recent visa applications/case progression

17 October 2016	The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (the department) issued Mr X with a Notice of Intention to Consider Refusal of his Protection visa application. Mr X responded on 19 April 2017.
9 May 2017	The department notified Mr X that a delegate of the Minister had decided not to exercise their discretion to refuse his Protection visa application under s 501 of the Migration Act 1958 .

Health and welfare

Mr X did not require treatment for any major physical or mental health issues.
--

Case status

Mr X was granted a Protection visa on 6 June 2017 and was released from immigration detention.
--