

REPORT BY THE COMMONWEALTH AND IMMIGRATION OMBUDSMAN FOR TABLING IN PARLIAMENT

Under s 486O of the Migration Act 1958

This is the first s 486O report on Mr X who has remained in restricted immigration detention for a cumulative period of more than 30 months (two and a half years).

Name	Mr X
Citizenship	Stateless (claimed), born in Country A
Year of birth	1994
Ombudsman ID	1002271-O
Date of DIBP's reports	21 December 2015 and 17 June 2016
Total days in detention	910 (at date of DIBP's latest report)

Detention history

6 December 2013	Detained under s 189(3) of the Migration Act 1958 after arriving in Australia aboard Suspected Illegal Entry Vessel (SIEV) 868 Zionsville . He was transferred to an Alternative Place of Detention (APOD), Christmas Island.
10 December 2013	Transferred to Nauru Regional Processing Centre (RPC). <sup>1</sup>
24 December 2013	Returned to Australia and re-detained under s 189(1). He was transferred to Northern Immigration Detention Centre (IDC).
3 January 2014	Transferred to Christmas Island IDC.
29 April 2014	Transferred to Wickham Point APOD.
11 May 2016	Transferred to Yongah Hill IDC.

Visa applications/case progression

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) advised that Mr X is part of a cohort who have not had their protection claims assessed as they arrived in Australia after 13 August 2012 and the Minister has not lifted the bar under s 46A.
12 March 2014	DIBP notified Mr X of the unintentional release of personal information. <sup>2</sup>
16 March 2016	DIBP confirmed that detainees who arrived in Australia after 19 July 2013 who were transferred to an RPC but returned to immigration detention in Australia for medical reasons remain liable for transfer back to an RPC on completion of their treatment.

<sup>1</sup> Time spent at an RPC is not counted towards time spent in immigration detention in Australia for the purposes of reporting under s 486N.

<sup>2</sup> In a media release dated 19 February 2014 the former Minister advised that an immigration detention statistics report was released on DIBP's website on 11 February 2014 which inadvertently disclosed detainees' personal information. The documents were removed from the website as soon as DIBP became aware of the breach from the media. The Minister acknowledged this was a serious breach of privacy by DIBP.

Health and welfare

International Health and Medical Services advised that Mr X was diagnosed with hepatitis C and placed on a care plan. He continues to be monitored by a specialist and no concerns have been raised. Mr X disclosed a history of torture and trauma, but declined a referral for specialist counselling. He receives ongoing support for situational stress and difficulty sleeping. He was placed on high Support Monitoring and Engagement observations on 7 April 2016 following threats of self-harm. He continues to be closely monitored by the mental health team following an incident of self-harm on 9 April 2016.
24 December 2013	DIBP advised that Mr X was transferred from Nauru RPC to Australia for medical treatment.
29 April 2014	A DIBP Incident Report recorded that Mr X refused food and fluid as a form of protest.

Ombudsman assessment/recommendation

The Ombudsman notes that Mr X was detained on 6 December 2013 after arriving in Australia aboard SIEV Zionsville and has been held in restricted detention for a cumulative period of over two and a half years with no processing of his protection claims. The Ombudsman notes with concern the Government's duty of care to detainees and the serious risk to mental and physical health prolonged detention may pose. Without an assessment of Mr X's claims to determine if he is found to engage Australia's protection obligations, it appears likely that he will remain in restricted detention for an indefinite period. The Ombudsman further notes DIBP's advice that because Mr X was transferred to an RPC but returned to immigration detention in Australia for medical reasons he remains liable for transfer back to an RPC on completion of his treatment. The Ombudsman recommends that priority is given to exploring options to enable the resolution of Mr X's immigration status.
