Detention history

19 December 2012	Detained under s 189(3) of the Migration Act 1958 after arriving in Australia as an unaccompanied minor aged 15 aboard Suspected Illegal Entry Vessel 567 Tornax .
6 May 2015	Granted a Bridging visa with an associated Temporary Humanitarian Stay (THS) visa and released from community detention.

Visa applications/case progression

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) advised that prior to being released from detention, Mr X was part of a cohort who had not had their protection claims assessed as they arrived in Australia after 13 August 2012 and the Minister had not lifted the bar under s 46A.
6 May 2015	Granted a Bridging visa with an associated THS visa.

Health and welfare

1 February 2013	International Health and Medical Services (IHMS) advised that Mr X was identified as a tuberculosis contact. Prior to his release from detention, he continued to be monitored as per state policy.
1 May 2013	Mr X was reviewed by the mental health team following ongoing mental health concerns. IHMS advised that he attended supportive counselling and no further mental health concerns were noted.

Ombudsman assessment/recommendation

Mr X was granted a Bridging visa with an associated THS visa on 6 May 2015 and released from immigration detention.

The Ombudsman notes that Mr X was detained on 19 December 2012 after arriving in Australia as an unaccompanied minor aged 15, and was held in detention for over two years before being granted a Bridging visa. The Ombudsman further notes that, at the time of DIBP's review, processing of his claims for protection had not commenced.

The Ombudsman recommends that the Minister lift the bar under s 46A and processing of Mr X's protection claims commence as soon as possible.
