18 June 2015	Granted Bridging visas and released from community detention.

Visa applications/case progression

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) advised that prior to being released from detention, Mr X and Ms Y were part of a cohort who had not had their protection claims assessed as they arrived in Australia after 13 August 2012 and the Minister had not lifted the bar under s 46A.

Health and welfare

The family was provided with treatment and counselling for a range of physical and mental health issues.
July 2013	Ms Y gave birth to her son.
April 2015	Ms Y gave birth to her second baby (gender not specified).

Ombudsman assessment/recommendation

Mr X and Ms Y were granted Bridging visas on 18 June 2015 and released from immigration detention. The Ombudsman notes that Mr X and Ms Y were held in detention for over two years before being granted Bridging visas. The Ombudsman further notes that, at the time of DIBP's review, processing of their claims for protection had not commenced. The Ombudsman recommends that the Minister lift the bar under s 46A and processing of the family's protection claims commence as soon as possible.
