

REPORT (ABRIDGED) BY THE COMMONWEALTH AND IMMIGRATION OMBUDSMAN FOR TABLING IN PARLIAMENT

Under s 486O of the Migration Act 1958

This is the second s 486O report on Mr X and his family who remained in immigration detention for more than 30 months (two and a half years).

The first report 1001892 was tabled in Parliament on 4 March 2015. This report updates the material in that report and should be read in conjunction with the previous report.

Name	Mr X (and family)
Citizenship	Stateless (claimed, of A ethnicity)
Year of birth	1981
Ombudsman ID	1002354
Date of DIBP's report	26 March 2015

Detention history

17 September 2012	Mr X, Ms Y and their two children were detained under s 189(3) of the Migration Act 1958 after arriving in Australia aboard Suspected Illegal Entry Vessel 447 Babbage .
27 August 2015	Granted Bridging visas and released from community detention.

Visa applications/case progression

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) advised that prior to being released from detention, Mr X and his family were part of a cohort who had not had their protection claims assessed as they arrived in Australia after 13 August 2012 and the Minister had not lifted the bar under s 46A.

Health and welfare

The family was provided with treatment and counselling for a range of physical and mental health issues including depression and adjustment disorders.
12 August 2013	DIBP advised that Mr X and Ms Y's seven-year-old son Master Z wrapped wool around his neck and expressed suicidal ideation. He was placed on a safety plan and attended counselling.

Ombudsman assessment/recommendation

Mr X and his family were granted Bridging visas on 27 August 2015 and released from immigration detention. The Ombudsman notes that Mr X and his family were held in detention for over two and a half years before being granted Bridging visas. The Ombudsman further notes that, at the time of DIBP's review, processing of their claims for protection had not commenced. The Ombudsman recommends that the Minister lift the bar under s 46A and processing of the family's protection claims commence as soon as possible.
