Ombudsman assessment/recommendation

Master X was detained on 19 June 2015 following his birth to parents in immigration detention and has been held in detention for more than two years.

Master X's family was transferred to an RPC and returned to Australia for medical treatment. The department advised that because the family arrived after 19 July 2013 they remain liable for transfer back to an RPC on completion of their treatment.

The department further advised that it is supporting the government of Nauru to finalise the Refugee Status Determinations of the family while they remain temporarily in Australia for medical treatment.

The Ombudsman notes with concern the government's duty of care to detainees and the serious risk to mental and physical health prolonged and apparently indefinite detention may pose.

The Ombudsman notes that under current policy settings Master X is not eligible to have his protection claims assessed by Australia and that without an assessment of Master X's claims it appears likely he will remain in detention for a prolonged period.

The Ombudsman recommends that priority is given to resolving Master X and his family's immigration status.
